8:30 am—12 pm

Jefferson School African American Heritage Center

FREE CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

Can you help us answer these questions?

- What kind of memorial should the University of Virginia create to honor the enslaved people who helped to build the university?
- How can U.Va. invest in the community in ways that honor and appropriately acknowledge those who have helped build and maintain the university throughout its history?
- What's the best way to tell the stories of our community (photos, exhibits, lectures, remembrance day)?

Space is limited.
